

Chinese 1975

Lin Hairong

Oil Painters

Download

Education & Background | Exhibitions

Education & Background

Lin Hairong is a Chinese painter known for her modern and contemporary art. She was born in 1975 and has had her work featured in prestigious galleries and museums like Longmen Art Projects in Hong Kong. Her artwork has been sold at auction, with prices ranging from 3,370 USD to 17,737 USD, depending on the piece's size and medium. The highest price ever achieved for her work at auction was 17,737 USD, which was for the piece titled Sing and Dance to Celebrate the Prosperous World, sold at Sotheby's Hong Kong in 2012. Here are some of the record prices for her art in recent years:

- 2021
Who Can Play?
- 2016
Cabbage in Winter
- 2015
Crane on Branches
- 2014
With Friend Crane
- 2012
Sing and Dance to Celebrate the Prosperous World
- 2011
Revolutionary Pamphlet
- 2010
Comrades
- 2007
Sing and Dance to Celebrate the Prosperous World Series No. 9

Solo Exhibitions

- 2017
IDOL – Lin Hairong 2017, Longmen Art Projects
IDOL: New Works by Lin Hairong, Longmen Art Projects
- 2014
Alluring Figures – Lin Hairong Solo Exhibition, Longmen Art Projects
- 2012
A Slow Song – Lin Hairong 2012 Oil Painting Exhibition, Longmen Art Projects

Group Exhibitions

- 2017
Introspection and Exploration: Artistic Generations in Asia, Longmen Art Projects
- 2013
Timeless Contemporary- Recent Works by YE Yongqing, LI Lei, GAO Huijun, HE Sen, YU Jie, LIN Hairong, and LUO Dan, Longmen Art Projects

Collection

Browse the catalogue to discover everything available.

Browse

